Linedata awarded Best Technology at Fund Technology & WSL Awards

Win acknowledges platform's agility, scalability and performance

Paris, New York, Boston, London and Hong Kong, 14 February 2019 – Linedata (Euronext Paris: LIN) has won “Best Technology Provider Overall” in this year's Fund Technology and WSL Awards in New York.

These awards recognize and reward excellence in providers delivering technology solutions to asset managers who have demonstrated exceptional customer service and innovative product development over the past 12 months.

Linedata was acknowledged for the robustness and agility of its overall technology, which is delivered in a modular, cloud-based, front-to-back asset management platform. It leverages powerful parts of the new technology landscape, including machine learning models, dynamic, event-sourced (ES) data architecture, and micro-services.

Michael de Verteuil, Deputy Managing Director in charge of Business Development at Linedata, commented: “We are honored to have Linedata’s technology platform be recognized for its contribution to delivering leading asset management solutions to the industry. Linedata’s technology approach is underpinned by a strategic vision and unique combination of software capabilities, data analytics and services that support our clients in achieving their own technology transformations and optimized business operations.”
