

Focus on the Loansquare solution for syndicated lending

How to bring efficiency and new services to your clients, teams and financial partners?

Syndicated lending remains a strategic business for banks. In a competitive environment, you need to strengthen your leadership with more business innovation and simplified digitized processes for your corporate clients.

Therefore, you need the right IT partner to offer premium services to your customers, teams and partners. In this context, Linedata helps you to transform your syndicated lending activity with a modular suite composed of:

- Linedata Loansquare: Portal access & Data room, Agency & Portfolio
- Ekip³⁶⁰ for Origination: Pricing engine, Internal validation
- Ekip³⁶⁰ for Servicing: Deal management, Output management

The Loansquare solution allows you to better monitor your portfolio, enhance services through a client and partner-oriented portal and streamline processes with our set of standard APIs and workflows.

Discover our latest credential:

Following a six-month tender in 2020, a Tier 1 European Bank chose Loansquare to help the business lines of syndicated lending (LBO and Project finance mainly) to accelerate their growth by choosing the Portfolio and Agency Module of Loansquare which brings value-added services to their teams and the bank's clients.

The program sponsor, the Head of Business, was convinced by the following Loansquare capabilities:

- One platform for agency and portfolio management
- Multi-all solution: facilities, currencies, products...
- A unique SaaS Environment for multiple banks
- Access for external parties
