Linedata takes home “Best Portfolio Management Software – Innovation” from HFM Asia

First mover in integrated ESG scoring, AI/ML analysis of PMS data

Paris, New York, Boston, London and Hong Kong, December 1, 2021 – Linedata (Euronext Paris: LIN), a global provider of asset management and credit technology data and services, was recognized for “Best Portfolio Management Software – Innovation 2021” at this year’s HFM Asia Service Awards on 11th November.

The award acknowledges the Linedata portfolio management platform’s standout performance and the expertise of Linedata’s teams in delivering best in class innovation for Asian clients through its integrated AMP platform.

"We strive to be first-to-market with new and innovative updates for our PMS clients, as evidenced most recently by inclusion of ESG ratings data that every client can access flexibly and directly via our Data Management Service," commented Linedata Asia's Managing Director, Sally Crane. "Through Linedata Analytics Service, we were first to apply AI to analyze PMS data, helping our clients to improve their operational processes and efficiency. As our clients envision all the things they want their businesses to be, our goal at Linedata is to be the trusted partner by their side to help manage the complexity so that they can reimagine their operations to drive growth."

With a presence in Hong Kong for over 18 years, Linedata caters to Asia’s unique requirements with an end-to-end portfolio management platform and complementary outsourced services offering.

Linedata's AMP platform for alternative managers includes robust, flexible portfolio and order management with investor accounting. It powers more than 140 hedge funds globally, with over 80 in Hong Kong, Singapore, China, Australia, Malaysia, Thailand, and Japan.
