Linedata expands agreement with Refinitiv to enhance its Data Hub Management Solution

The new agreement allows Linedata clients to access Refinitiv's broad and differentiated data sets via its Data Hub scalable cloud platform

Paris, London, Luxembourg, Boston, New York and Hong Kong, May 4, 2023 - Linedata (Euronext Paris : LIN), a global provider of asset management and credit technology data and services, announces an extension of its agreement with Refinitiv an LSEG business and the evolution of the Data Hub data management system.

Data Hub is a software solution that offers Linedata customers access to aggregated and powered data sources. Data Hub is easily deployed both within Linedata's suite of software solutions and with third party applications, and simplifies choosing a data provider. A proprietary API-driven, cloud software solution, Data Hub leverages the latest technologies and micro-services architecture.

"The new agreement with Linedata is designed to address the challenges of front-, middle- and back-office professionals by covering intra-day pricing as well as closing prices of the markets. The Data Hub also meets the needs of investment funds, providing the daily closing prices observed by customers," says Kristin Hochstein, Global Head of Pricing and Reference Services at Refinitiv.

"We are excited about the extension of our partnership with Refinitiv. It allows us to facilitate our customers' access to a new repository of comprehensive data, while strengthening our Data Hub offering. With this innovation, we are enhancing our software portfolio which focuses on three pillars: software, services and data." adds Jamil Jiva, Global Head of Business Development at Linedata.
