

Linedata technology solutions for hedge funds across Asia

Transform your operations and empower your next phase of growth with trusted portfolio management technology and regional expertise for managing complex fund strategies and Asian market requirements.

At Linedata, we've helped hedge funds launch, scale, and handle increasing complexity for 20 years. More than 120 clients in Asia Pacific trust our portfolio management solutions daily to run sophisticated funds and fuel their growth.

For Asian hedge funds managing global macro, credit, multi-strategy funds and other complex strategies, Linedata Global Hedge (PMS) provides full capabilities for informed, accurate portfolio management decision-making and reporting.

With product development leadership based in Hong Kong, our solution has evolved with the direct input of Asian clients reflecting regional requirements. To complement hedge funds seeking a single solution for PMS, accounting & general ledger (NAV), Linedata's team of outsourced services experts provide middle office support for any engagement model.
