- Linedata Capitalstream ensures compliance with integrated Section 1071 support
- Linedata Capitalstream launches Next-Generation Configurable UI
- In early 2025, Linedata will launch a new Capitalstream customer portal redefining how financial institutions engage with clients

Paris, New York, Boston, Charlotte, Seattle, Toronto, Mexico City, 28 October 2024 – Linedata (Euronext Paris: LIN), a global provider of credit and asset management technology, data and services, announced today it is launching a suite of new capabilities for Linedata Capitalstream, its lending and leasing software solution for credit origination and risk management, that revolutionize the future of financial services. With these new features, Linedata Capitalstream delivers cutting-edge technology that meets the evolving needs of commercial and small business lenders.

With a suite of new capabilities, Linedata Capitalstream is uniquely positioned to empower the future of financial services, with enhancements including:

- Integrated 1071 Compliance Solution: Collecting and processing small business lending data has never been easier. Maintain compliance without added complexity or external tools.
- Next-Gen Configurable UI: Enabling financial institutions to fully tailor their workflows, interfaces, and lending processes.
- Cloud-Based Architecture: Transforming the speed of updates with customers benefiting from regularly scheduled releases delivering crucial new features, performance enhancements and regulatory compliance capabilities

Looking ahead to early 2025, Linedata Capitalstream will further extend its capabilities by releasing a powerful customer portal redefining how financial institutions engage with their clients. In addition to the portal, Linedata will introduce a host of powerful new integrations designed to empower clients throughout the lending journey.

“As financial institutions face increasingly complex demands, we are committed to leading the way with investment in powerful tools and next-gen solutions enabling clients to stay ahead of market demands,” said Louanne Gemin, Customer Success, Lending & Leasing North America, Linedata. “Linedata Capitalstream is built to empower financial institutions with the capabilities they need to scale efficiently, drive growth, and ensure compliance.”

Linedata Capitalstream is designed to meet the growing demand for commercial and small business lending by delivering robust, flexible, and cloud-ready solutions, enabling financial institutions to operate with greater agility, compliance, and customer-centricity.
