Magna Capital Chooses Linedata Global Hedge to Empower its Client Platform

The solution is at the core of Magna Capital's transformation to optimize portfolio management services

Paris, London, Boston, New York, Hong Kong, April 30, 2025 – Linedata (Euronext Paris: LIN), a global provider of asset management and credit technology, data, and services, today announces the successful implementation of its Linedata Global Hedge solution at Magna Capital.

Renowned for its long-standing expertise and 25 years of market knowledge, Linedata has been chosen to enhance Magna Capital's portfolio management capabilities and streamline the management and tracking of their clients' investments. The Magna team can now easily analyze data, seamlessly integrate new data flows, and manage their daily trade related operations in seconds.

As Magna Capital embarks on a new chapter in its growth journey, it selected Linedata for its proven reliability and the promise of a true partnership, where Linedata's solution is integrated with Magna Capital's client portal via APIs. As a fully scalable solution, Linedata Global Hedge is designed to adapt to evolving business needs, emerging markets and client demands, whether they involve asset diversification or the integration of new data flows.

After successfully implementing the solution, Linedata Global Hedge has enabled the Magna Capital's team to achieve significant improvements in daily operational efficiency, putting valuable information at their fingertips. This improvement allows the teams to focus on value-added services while also streamlining business workflows.

Alexander Ginzburg, CEO of Magna Capital commented, "We are delighted to onboard with Linedata and implement their Global Hedge solution, which has already transformed our daily operations and portfolio management capabilities in the developed and frontier markets. As we continue on our growth journey, we're looking forward to a long and productive partnership with Linedata, whose proven reliability and scalable technology will support our evolving business needs."

"We are delighted that the Magna Capital team has chosen us to support them in their transformation and we look forward to continuing to help them make the most of the solution as their business grows and we develop further functionality", added Aldric Dupais, Head of Asset Management Europe at Linedata. "Linedata Global Hedge is a customized solution for fund managers and investment experts, tailored to meet diverse needs. By integrating our extensive databases with their own portal, we can offer Magna Capital a truly scalable platform that will help empower their teams and support their long-term growth."
