

AG2R LA MONDIALE Reaffirms Its Trust in Linedata and Deploys Linedata Optima

Paris, London, Boston, New York, Hong Kong – September 24, 2026 – Linedata (Euronext Paris: LIN), a global provider of credit and asset management technology, data, and services, extends its collaboration with AG2R LA MONDIALE in France and Luxembourg by five years. As partners for over 20 years, the two groups are taking a new step forward with the roll-out of Linedata Optima. This platform will enable AG2R LA MONDIALE to streamline and digitize its asset management operational processes and, in the short term, optimize its productivity gains.

A leading player in social protection and wealth management, AG2R LA MONDIALE operates based on a joint and mutualist governance model. The Group supports 15 million customers and 500,000 businesses in the areas of savings, pensions, health and personal protection, at every stage of their lives.

A technology partner of AG2R LA MONDIALE since 2004, Linedata will support the Group in deploying the Linedata Optima solution for its portfolio management and insurance accounting operations. The platform will provide advanced Business Process Management (BPM) capabilities to orchestrate, automate, and monitor operational processes, while accelerating the digitization of operational controls and workflows.

“This renewal goes far beyond continuing our collaboration with Linedata. It marks a new phase in the transformation of our asset management processes. With Linedata Optima, we now have a platform agile enough to support the rapid changes taking place across the insurance industry and to continue advancing our digital roadmap” said Pascal Martinez, Executive Committee Member of AG2R LA MONDIALE, in charge of Information Systems and Digital.

Over the coming months, AG2R LA MONDIALE and Linedata teams will work together to identify and deploy high-value use cases. This initiative supports the Group’s objective of automating operational workflows within its asset management activities, reducing manual intervention while enhancing control over its operations. It also aims to improve productivity and the reliability of its activities while progressively benefiting from Linedata Optima’s advanced capabilities, particularly in the field of artificial intelligence.

“We are delighted to extend our collaboration with AG2R LA MONDIALE. Effective technology is technology that makes teams’ work easier. Our goal is to put automation to work for our clients’ business operations, delivering benefits that can be measured quickly: fewer repetitive tasks, fewer errors, and more time dedicated to high-value activities,” added Aldric Dupais, Head of Asset Management Europe at Linedata.
